Marbella News

Like all relationships, the long love affair between Arabia and Andalusia has had some intense periods, some quieter moments and many years of mutual affection and respect. Marbella simply would not be Marbella without its palaces, Arabic visitors and residents.

This article in Gulf News talks about that in more depth. As Ramadan ends and the Golden Mile fills with visitors from every country in the Gulf and beyond, the love affair reaches its annual peak - Asset Folio will be welcoming new, old and prospective clients and announcing some new and exciting projects. Call into our offices for coffee and baklava if you are in Marbella this summer. We look forward to seeing you.
